

Quotes from readers of
Mary, Ferrie & the Monkey Virus
The Story of an Underground Medical Laboratory
by Edward T. Haslam

"One of the most explosive conspiracy books written in our times."

Whitley Strieber, UnknownCountry.com

"A helluva book! A job well done!"

Jim Marrs, author, Crossfire, Oliver Stone's JFK

"What a bombshell! Gripping from the start and difficult to put down."

*Lorraine Day, M.D. former Chief of Surgery,
San Francisco General Hospital*

"A remarkable and heroic work."

David Emory, radio talk show host, Spitefire.com

"A landmark book of investigative journalism."

David Aiken, M.D.

"Forget Anne Rice and her vampire-infested Southern mansions."

Alan Cantwell, Jr., M.D, author, AIDS & the Doctors of Death

"It is a strange, courageous voyage of discovery, one that could have been written by Voltaire."

Jim DiEugenio, author, Destiny Betrayed

"I have thoroughly enjoyed reading this very well-written book."

Cyril Wecht, M.D., J.D., Forensic Pathologist

"Five Stars."

Amazon.com, Average Reader Rating, from 1998 to 2007.

"In a word, excellent."

Bill Davy, author, Let Justice Be Done

"I loved your book - read it in 24 hours."

Lisa Pease, editor, Probe Magazine

"Wonderful, startling, frightening... buy two, give one to a friend, loan your copy, but get it out..."

Kelleigh Nelson, producer for a syndicated radio talk show.

"Enter this sacred wood if you dare... the book is radioactive."

CTKA catalog

"A must read for every serious student of the JFK assassination."

Wim Dankbaar, JFKMurderSolved.com

"Ed Haslam is not among the best known authors regarding the JFK assassination (though he should be)."

John Delane Williams and Kelly Thomas Cousins

The book Mary, Ferrie & the Monkey Virus has been expanded and re-titled as Dr. Mary's Monkey.
It can be ordered from any bookstore or from www.DoctorMarysMonkey.com.